PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD (B)

Week beginning 28th March 2021

“Commemoration Of The Lord's Entrance Into Jerusalem”

On this day the church celebrates Christ's entrance into Jerusalem to accomplish his paschal mystery. Accordingly, this event is included in every Mass with the procession or solemn entrance.

Entrance Antiphon: Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blest are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates lift high your heads; grow higher ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blest are you, who have come in your abundant mercy.

1st Reading:
Isaiah: 50: 4-7 I did not cover my face against insult – I know I shall not be shamed

Responsorial Psalm R/. My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

2nd Reading:
Letter of St Paul to the Philippians 2:6-11 He humbled himself, but God raised him high.

Gospel Acclamation Praise to you O Christ, king of eternal glory:
*Christ was humbler yet,
even to accepting death, death on a cross.
But God raised him high
And gave him the name which is above all names.
Praise to you O Christ, king of eternal glory.*

Gospel Reading:
Mark 14:1-15:47 The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

We would respectfully ask that you please ensure that all mobile phones are switched off while you are in church.

FR JON'S 'GUIDANCE FOR THE CELEBRATION OF HOLY WEEK'

Palm Sunday – The Procession commemorating The Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem will not take place this year. The Mass will begin at the entrance to the church where the Palm Crosses will be blessed, and the Gospel of the Lord's Entry into Jerusalem will be proclaimed. After the Gospel, the ministers move to the Sanctuary and the Mass continues with the Collect. The shorter form of the Passion from the Gospel of St Mark is read by the Priest alone. The turba parts (crowd responses) are not to be exclaimed by the congregation. The blessed Palm Crosses will be distributed to the faithful as they leave the church after Mass.

Mass of the Lord's Supper – The Washing of the Feet is omitted, and there is to be no procession to the Altar of Repose. The Reserved Sacrament will be kept in the Tabernacle. The priest (and servers) may spend a little time in silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle before exiting the sanctuary. The faithful are encouraged to also kneel in adoration during this time. Once the priest (and servers) leaves the sanctuary the people should leave church in the now customary way. For reasons of safety, Watching in lieu of the Altar of Repose is not possible.

Good Friday – The Stations of the Cross will be led from the lectern, and not involve the following of the individual Stations around the church. Walks of Witness are not permitted. The proclamation of the Passion according to St John will be read with the Priest plus two other readers. The turba parts (crowd responses) are not to be exclaimed by the congregation. The Universal Prayer is to be carried out with a special intention (For the afflicted in time of Pandemic) inserted before the intercession For those in Tribulation (X). The Adoration of the Holy Cross is limited to the Priest alone. After he has done this, the Cross will be elevated for a brief time, and the faithful will be invited to adore the Holy Cross, in silence, with a profound bow or by genuflecting, from their seats (Rubrics #19), followed by another short period of silent prayer. Holy Communion will be given under one kind from the Reserved Sacrament according to the previous Guidance offered by the Bishops' Conference.

The Easter Vigil – For the celebration of the Easter Vigil, the Paschal Candle will be prepared in the usual way, enthroned and lit in the Sanctuary, but by the Priest alone, and before the people gather in the church. The Priest (and Servers) will process in silence to the sanctuary where the Priest begins the celebration with the Sign of the Cross and the Greeting, Dear brothers and sisters, on this most sacred night... At the end of the Greeting, the Shorter Form of the Easter Proclamation (the Exsultet) which is read, and not sung, immediately follows. The faithful are not to hold votive candles for the Easter Vigil. In the Liturgy of the Word, there will be only two Old Testament readings, with their respective psalms, in addition to the reading of Exodus 14 and its canticle, after which the Epistle and Gospel follow. After the homily, the Priest blesses the baptismal water in the font and the Renewal of Baptismal Promises are made by those present. However, the asperges (sprinkling with holy water) is omitted. The Liturgy of the Eucharist follows in the usual manner.

Mass of Easter Day – Easter Sunday will be celebrated as normal, but without the asperges (sprinkling of holy water) as part of the Renewal of Baptismal Promises.

PLEASE NOTE; In compliance with the Government's directives on Test & Trace, and in fairness to everyone wishing to attend, it is imperative that people pre-register for the Triduum and Easter Sunday celebrations.

- Maundy Thursday (at 7:30pm) has a few places available.
- Good Friday; Stations of the Cross (at 2:15pm) and The Passion of the Lord (at 3pm) are both fully booked.
- Holy Saturday (at 7:30pm) has 2 places available.
- Easter Sunday; 9am Mass has just 1 place available.
10:45am Mass is fully booked.

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love you above all things

Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to you now and forever.
